

Glenn Donald Housworth

December 10, 2007

Glenn Donald Housworth, age 85, of Versailles, Missouri passed away December 10, 2007 at his home.

He was born April 27, 1922, in Climax Springs, Missouri, to Thomas Lee and Anna (Ash) Housworth, who preceded him in death.

He was also preceded in death by 5 sisters, Violet Housworth, Lula Baughman, Bonnie Daulton, Nealie Daulton, and Beulah Morris; and two brothers, Chancey and Ernest Housworth.

On September 4, 1948, he married Beulah Faye McMullin of Sedalia, Missouri.

He was employed by the Morgan County Library for nearly 50 years. In the beginning, he drove the Bookmobile to over 50 one-room schools around Morgan County. He later retired as the Library Director and was recently recognized for his vital role in laying a solid foundation facilitating the newly build Library.

He was an avid collector of guns, antiques and Indian artifacts and he and his wife, Beulah, owned and operated Pasttime Antiques Shop on the square in Versailles for 16 years.

He was also a talented professional musician and played guitar with various musical groups around the State of Missouri and appeared on local radio and TV stations.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Versailles and taught Sunday school for many years.

He is survived by his wife, Beulah, of the home; two daughters, Linda Cable of Lebanon, Missouri, and Connie Walker and her husband Steve, of Lincoln, Nebraska; one son; Tom Housworth and wife Shelly, of Florida; six grandchildren, Dana and Seth Cable, Tom Jost, Halie Oyler, Charlie and Dru Housworth; and seven great-grandchildren

Services for Glenn Donald Housworth will be held at 2:00 P.M. Saturday, December 15, 2007, at the Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home in Versailles with Dr. Todd Forman officiating. Visitation will be preceding the service from 1:00 to 2:00 P.M. and burial will be held in the Versailles Cemetery.
