“ Glen Marshall and I were in the 1963 gradating class of Versailles High School. In those years Glenn bucked many hay bales. Before going to work for the post office, Glen hauled live stock to St. Louis and to other destinations. He made good grades in school and was well liked. In the early grades, Glenn went to Richie school with Mrs. Hite as teacher. May our lord and memories comfort Glenn's family and friends during this time. ”
