“ I have lots of wonderful childhood memories of playing at the Reinke house and surrounding woods with my cousin, Ronnie. Aunt Gloriana was always kind, cheerful, and generous. Of course, we loved her food. My thoughts and prayers are with the family. She will be greatly missed.

Aunt Gloriana was the quiet, strong, hardworking force behind her family. You were always welcome in her home where she served delicious meals. She was a loving wife, mother, aunt and friend. She will be missed.

Aunt Gloriana was a sweet, generous, and beautiful woman. When my mom, Bonnie Williams, was busy running the bait shop while my dad delivered mail, she burned many a birthday cake! She then asked Gloriana if she would make our birthday cakes. She made the most delicious cakes, but my favorite was her chocolate! We had many Sunday, Christmas, and Thanksgiving dinners at the Reinke house, too. We looked forward to her spaghetti and/or slickers. She was a great cook, hard working, and giving. A woman of many talents! Loved her laugh, too! My deepest sympathies to all the family. Love, Kay
