“ Gregg was an upstanding man. I met him when we were kids and got reacquainted with him when he started going to Big Rock Church. As sad as I am that he is no longer here it makes my heart smile when I think of his entrance into Heaven. He's once again a 100% healthy man. I'm guessing he's not got out of the boat from a long fishing trip. I will never forget you. Bud!

“ Greg and Jay and Randy were like the big brothers I did not have. They taught me how to ride a bike and catch craw dad's and skip rocks. Greg is gone much too young and I know he will be missed. I recently caught up with him on social media and he told me how much he loved his kids and how proud of them he was. My sincere condolences to his family. He was such a great guy. May your memories comfort you.
