*To the entire Petersen family we all lost a good one in Greg. A funny, caring crazy kind of guy who I will miss talking to . I will greatly missed his frequent post to our Daughter Abbie on Facebook. Now there are together for eternity and he will show her how to flirt with the guys the way he did with women. He will be forever remembered in our hearts and minds. Barb & Gerry the calm before the storm. The coming months will be the hardest after family and friends are gone home. That will be when you need God ' s strength the most and the belief we will all be with our children gone before us for eternity.

To all the Peterson Family, none of you know me but I became one of Greg's favourite people to chat to on Facebook. I was on tour and passing through St.Louis and had arranged to meet Greg, but he never showed up.

I've thought about him often over the years and have been searching for answers as to why we never got to meet. He seemed very genuine otherwise I wouldn't of bothered

Today, I stumbled upon some information that helped me understand what happened.

I wanted to reach out and express my condolences for the challenges Greg faced, which prevented him from meeting me . Please know that I held him in high regard, and our online conversations meant a lot to me I hope someone from Greg's family get to read this, as it has closed a chapter in my life I no longer have to go searching for. My name is Kae Faulkner...RIP Greg Xx
