“ Tonight, I wish more than anything I was there to celebrate the life of Harry... but I am certainly there at heart. Through stories and family I have been fortunate to learn much about this strong man and share many smiles. The daughter he leaves here with us is one of the most amazing women I know and I am ever so grateful to have her in not only my life but the life of my children! Harry and Donna, you are loved more than you know! Tonight a candle burns in Michigan in tribute to Harry... a man that will certainly be missed. Love you all!

“ The first thing that comes to mind when I think of my Uncle Harry... he seemed to be the quiet one of all the Jacksons! Lived a simple life and I know his daughter Donna loved him so much, as we all did.
