

Hassel I. Henderson

December 3, 2009

Hassel I. Henderson, age 85, of Versailles, passed away Thursday, December 3, 2009, at the Good Shepherd Care Center in Versailles. He was born May 11, 1924, in Morgan County, Missouri, the son of the late Charles and Willie Kidwell Henderson.

On October 19, 1947, at the Bethel Parsonage, he was united in marriage to Louise Gerber, who survives of the home.

Hassel was a United States Army veteran having served during WWII. He worked for the Department of Corrections in Jefferson City for 16 years, and also enjoyed farming. He loved to fish, and most of all, he enjoyed spending time with his family, especially his grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

He was a member of the Hopewell Union Church. There, he served as Deacon, Superintendent of Sunday School, Church Treasurer, and served on the Hopewell Cemetery Association.

In addition to his wife, Louise, of 62 years, he is survived by his daughters, Mary Rumans and husband Larry of Versailles and Connie Baepler and husband John of Jefferson City; five grandchildren, Mark Baepler and wife Laura, Mike Baepler and wife Regina, Laura Falter and husband Kenny, Bryan Rumans and wife Courtney, and Ben Rumans; eight great-grandchildren; and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 a.m., Saturday, December 5, at the Hopewell Union Church. Interment will follow in the Hopewell Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 10:00 to 11:00 a.m., Saturday, at the church. Memorial contributions are suggested to the Hopewell Union Church or the Hopewell Cemetery Association. Expressions of sympathy may be left online at www.kidwellgarber.com. Arrangements are under the direction of the Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home of Versailles.
