“ Darlene and I were good friends all through school after I moved here in 1958. We had a lot of fun and laughs. Enjoyed talking to her at our 50th class reunion as we visited with other classmates at Dean Taylors's place. She will be missed.

“ Sending strength for healing to all her family especially Angi! I remember when I was a little girl, going to her house was fun. She had all sorts of things, could never be bored around Darlene. She is such a neat lady and I loved looking at her hands cause she always wore lots of rings and jewelry. She was always so kind and talkative. I sure Do love her. Bless her soul she's one of a kind♡
