

Henry L. Carter

January 18, 1932 - May 6, 2014

Henry L. Carter, age 82, of Barnett, passed away Tuesday, May 6, 2014, at the Laurie Care Center. He was born January 18, 1932, in Mansfield, Missouri, a son of the late John Alba and Era Josephine (Brown) Carter.

On November 25, 1955, in Kansas City, Missouri, he was united in marriage to Doreen M. Carter, who preceded him in death on July 19, 2012.

Henry was a United States Army veteran, having served in the Korean Conflict.

He expressed his religion through the Presbyterian faith.

Henry was a supporter the UNICEF charity. He had passion for nature, and enjoyed time spent outdoors. As a child, he worked for Laura and Almanzo Wilder. Laura (Ingalls) Wilder was best known as the author of Little House on the Prairie. Later, he enjoyed fishing and hunting quail.

He is survived by his son, Duane Carter of Barnett; his daughter, Stephanie Mayfield of Yuba City, California; four grandchildren, Neil Carter, Brandy Estrada, Amy Butler and Justin Gray; six great-grandchildren; and many other relatives and friends. In addition to his parents and wife, he was preceded in death by six siblings.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.

Cremation arrangements are under the direction and care of the Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home of Versailles.
