“Hubert L. "Chris" Chrisman was my first cousin. I grew up knowing him as Sonny. Our grandpa Wesley started calling him that when he was little.

Sonny's mother Beulah Wesley Chrisman and my father Walter Wesley were brother and sister.

My memories of him are when all of us cousins would get together at Grandma Mae Wesley's house in Havensville, Kansas and when he and his wife Donna and their children Kevin and Sherry would come to our family farm for visits. Kevin and Sherry would stay on our farm a lot. I was close to both of them. I remember Kevin being "ornery" and funny just like his dad. One time Kevin got "lost", or he thought he was lost on our farm. He was only on the other side of the fence that had lots of trees and he couldn't see our house.

Although Sonny was 21 when I was born, he and all of my first cousins were like brothers and sisters to me since I didn't have any. I remember him as being one of the "ornery" Wesley's and always being funny!

I did not get to know his current wife, Martha, like I would have liked to. Since they lived so far away from me, it was hard to see them much.

I will miss Sonny and his stories..
