“ Kay, it was good to see both of you this year at the Versailles High School Alumni Banquet. It had been many years since I had seen you. As I remember, more than 60 years ago Glensted Church was preparing us children for a Christmas program. We were practicing for it at Wade and Mary Richardson's home in Glensted. I remember your getting down in the floor on the carpet beside us to help us with the songs. Now that I think about it, it may have been your sister, Georgia who helped us. Again, it was good to see you at the banquet.
