“ Jimmy Dale, as we all called him, was a very kind and selfless person who would literally give you the shirt off of his back if you needed it. He loved his family and we loved him. Rest in peace brother and enjoy your rewards in heaven. You earned them!

“ I remember one time we were on our way back from the lake in Oklahoma (I think we we owned the station wagon back then) when we were driving down the road and all of a sudden Dad saw a tarantula crossing the highway and we had to stop and see it. I think that Uncle Dave and Bobby and/or Mike was there as well. We all got out of the car and surrounded this spider, when all of a sudden the damn thing starts running after me. Everyone was laughing and having a good time whole I was jumping into to the car frantically shutting the door behind me.
