Jim you will be truly missed. You are with the love of your life now. I have and will miss your funny smile, your funny remarks and the funny names you always seemed to make up for people. I will always remember you driving up the driveway in your cool car first with Max and then with Ella May. That is when you seemed the happiest. You were the best father-in-law that any woman could ask for, you were always there when I needed a shoulder to cry on or just to talk to. You were a good father and grandfather. Rest in peace and I will never forget all the good times that we spent together as a family.

“ I miss you so much Grandpa! I've been talking to you every night. I miss taking rides in the cool car with you and Max; always going to get ice cream. (Max had to get some as well) Remember that time you let me paint your toe nails pink?! I was young so I didn't exactly paint inside the lines. You had to go out on a service call right after I got done painting them, so you put your socks and boots on. You came back home and took your boots off, and well you tried to take your socks off but they were stuck to your pink toes. I will never forget that. I remember wearing your boots around the house, and you would always give me pop in my bottle. You were and still are the best grandpa in the world. I hope to spoil my grand children as much as you and grandma spoiled me. I love you so much. I will see you and grandma some day :)
