“ So sorry for Jane's family's loss of her. I am a cousin of hers. I wish the family hadn't drifted so many miles apart as the years went by, but I guess such is life. However, I bet if the two of us had been together very much, the world would have not been safe from our antics. Take care.

“ I love the snow.... Many snow days were filled with so many memories at home. Mom always baked when it snowed, the house was always full of love and smelled like a cozy bakery. Fresh breads, cinnamon rolls, cakes, cookies and coffee.

“ I've been best friends with Jane's daughter Trish for over 30 years and I can remember I'd ride the bus almost every other weekend to stay at her house. Jane was like a second mom to me. She always knew how to make you laugh. I knew I was always welcome because when I would come out, she always greeted me with a hug. Jane RIP!!!!!! You will be missed!!!!

“ I used to live by Jane for several years. I will always remember her as a kind and loving Mother, Wife, Neighbor and a Dear Friend. She always had a smile and time to catch up with her friends and family. She is now in the loving arms of our Savior, Jesus Christ, but I feel she will always be in our hearts. Keith and my deepest condolences to all her family.
