“ My most recent memories of Jane revolved around the annual Apple Festival when our family would come back "home" to enjoy the activities. And, as a youth, I remember Jane fixing my mom's hair quite often. That memory is also one of mom's fondest with the claim that Jane was the best around! Mom wanted to attend the services, but is a little under the weather. Our sympathy to the family and God Bless you all.

“ Morgan Co. was made a bit better and a bit brighter due to Jane's love of her community. She illustrated what it is to be a member of a community: through the Chamber, Council and years of devotion to the Apple Festival. Her hair salons always offered more than product and services. She gave of herself with each visit. No excuses, no pretense, but always straight from the heart always. Anything she did, she did with quality, passion and pure heart. Dearly missed from us. Dearly missed.

She had a heart as big as all outdoors, she was very outspoken and not afraid to stand for what she believed in. I will forever miss her and her cheery hello and warm smile. RIP my friend you will be missed.*
