“ Susie was a really sweet person. She enjoyed life. She was a giving and loving person. I would take her shopping for clothes. She got so she would pick out bright colors. We would always eat out after we went. She will be missed greatly,

Susie was a special person whose first love was God , She never spoke badly about anyone , was willing to help in any way she could . She was always smiling and in a loving mood . I considered her one of my best friends , She never let her disabilities discourage her. She is already greatly missed .
