JAY M cCULLOCH

James Alan “Jay” McCulloch, age 59, of Versailles, Missouri, passed away Friday, January 24, 2025 at Lake Regional Hospital, Osage Beach, Missouri. He was born April 9, 1965 in Kansas City, Missouri, a son of James Reese and Opal Willene (Clinton) McCulloch.

Jay was raised in the Kansas City area where he later worked as a florist. He moved to Versailles, Missouri in 2003. He enjoyed bowling on leagues at Tiger Lanes several years ago. He was a gunsmith and a gun collector. He liked hunting and fishing, although he wasn't a master of either. His family was most important to him.

Survivors include his daughter, Jamie McCulloch and fiancé, Robert Rackers of Stover, Missouri; two grandchildren, Gabriella McCulloch and Aralyn Rasa; two brothers, Edward McCulloch of Kansas City, Missouri and Robert McCulloch of Gravois Mills, Missouri; a sister, Sheryl Clinton of Kansas City, Missouri and a host of other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.

Memorial donations may be made to a GoFundMe account titled “JJ’s
Cremation and Celebration of Life”

Cremation arrangements are under the care and direction of the Kidwell-
Garber Funeral Home of Versailles.

“ Jamie, Cheryl, Eddie, Robert Aunt Jo Ann and myself are so sorry. Our prayers are with you and our thoughts.

I remember all of us getting in to so much trouble. Especially Eddie and I over the scalloped potatoes . We had so much fun playing in moms and grandma's yard. And if uncle gi gi said no or aunt Jo Ann we'd ask grandma. But it was usually a no f8rom her. Love you all.
