“ I've known Johnny for about 16 years, we met an AOL party and we have been best friends since. Johnny had the most amazing smile and laugh. He became a part of my family and I, his. I have so many wonderful memories of Johnny it's difficult to know which one to share. One of my fondest memories was Johnny and I took Kayla and Lauren to the Painted Pot, the girls were about 4. Both girls picked a dog to paint and I remember there being paint everywhere, both girls took a very long time to finish their dog and when we left Johnny said to me “That took forever, we don't have to do that again”. We then took the girls for pizza. Also, anyone that knew Johnny knew how much he loved to play cards. I remember playing spades on line with Johnny while we were on the phone with each other. People were sure we were cheating but we weren't, we were just both very good at spades and complemented each other well. Miss and love you Johnny.

“ John Calahan was my lighthouse in the storm while a young boy . In high school he accepted me and mentored me when it was not a popular thing to do. John will always be remembered by me as one of the greats. It is a sad day for all of us. John was a man that stood for his idealisms and was not afraid to tell people like it was. I always admired that in him. You will always be remembered and missed my friend Randy S Dinwiddie
