“ I have many wonderful memories of attending church with your entire family. John was a hard working, Christian man who loved his family, and his church. My prayer for you is that you find comfort knowing that you and your family are being lifted up in prayer, and John is home with Jesus.

In Christ's unending love,

“Fay, J. T. and Richard, my thoughts and prayers are with you in the passing of John. I remember riding Harry McColleston's school bus with John when I was in the sixth grade. It was not until later years that I came to appreciate John's carpentry skills. May our Lord and memories comfort John's family and friends during this time and in days to come.
