“ I loved talking about books with my Aunt Josie. I will miss her, and I'll always be grateful to her for keeping me out of trouble when I was a kid. In the summer, I'd be out playing all day and be filthy by afternoon. Knowing that my mom (Josie's sister, Ina Lucille) would be--to say the least--disappointed to find me in that condition, Josie would bathe me and wash my clothes so I'd be fresh and clean when Ina got off work. Josie saved me (and Ina) many times,
