“Joyce was a beautiful woman with a good soul. So many good memories from working at the bait station with her. I still laugh when she would get her temper up with Joe. My deepest sympathies to the family. She will be greatly missed.

“My mother, Wanda Taylor and Joyce spent many hour together when Joyce owned the Bait station in Aldrich mo, they would get together and have a nip or two and sing around the piano. I worked part time for Joyce she was so much fun. I remember going with her to Springfield on thursdays and getting the supplies for the store and she would always take us to Diamond Head restaurant, wow we had fun. Joyce was about fun she had a heart has big as the ocean and the last time i saw Joyce, she, my mother wanda and I chris went to jefferson city and to herman mo. to the octoberfest, we again had a great time. Joyce was upbeat and just made you feel good just being around her positive ways. So from the late Wanda Taylor family we send our love and feeling of loss to her family and friends, my sister phyllis and I send you our love, thoughts and prayers.
