“Joyce was a friend to me in the late 1940's when we rode the school bus together. Always such a sweet person and she had a smile for everyone. My condolences to the family. Your lives were blessed having her. DeeDee Cairns Hutchison

Joyce was an awesome person. She and Jim were a great inspiration to this young couple as we started pastoring OPEN DOOR. Always a smile of encouragement. We loved this beautiful woman. We rejoice that she is reunited with her Savior and Jim and others who have gone before!
