“ I first met Joyce when she married my cousin, Harry. I was 7 and so excited about going to that wedding. I thought she was so beautiful and I got to kiss the tall handsome groom. I got a beautiful blonde doll that year for Christmas and of course she had to be named Joyce.

A few years later when they had two little girls they would come camping by the creek on our farm. Then when I got married we used to visit often. We were always made to feel so welcome. They have always been very special cousins to me.
