“ Our family considered Kathryn a very dear friend of many years. We remember her wonderful acts of kindness and dedication, including visiting our Grandmother, 'Mae Welpman' every single day while she was in the local Nursing Center. Kathryn shared many wonderful cards and letters with us over the years, always remembering special occasions. Her devotion to her friends and church as well as her love of gardening, cooking and her pets, were are all tributes to a life well lived.

Our condolences to her family and friends and a special thank you to Bertha Bacon and her family for all the years of dedication and attention to Kathryn's care.
