“ My heartfelt condolences to the entire Quade family. I never knew Keith personally, but feel as if we were close friends based on my strong friendship with Duane his son. Duane spoke of him fondly nearly every day, sharing stories of his times growing up under a strong and loving father. We had many good laughs speaking about his dad when he was growing up, Duane always spoke with great reverence about him. I admired Duane all the more for that. Judging by the character of his son, I can only imagine Keith was a one of a kind father and family man. May he rest in peace. Sincerely, Brian Alvin
