“ My love and heartfelt sympathy to Kim's entire family. What a blessing she has been in my life and lives of so many others. Her family was a treasure to her. And even though she couldn't always do the things that most of us take for granted - or up and go like she wanted to - she had you all in her prayers and cherished every moment that she got to spend with you. Her deep, deep faith and trust in the Lord got her through many, many difficult days. And that is a true legacy. May we carry on that same faith and trust in our own lives. I will miss my bff - but we will meet again. I can almost hear her singing.... "my chains are gone I've been set free. My God, my Savior has ransomed me. And like a flood his mercy rains. Unending love... Amazing grace." My sympathy to you all. Kim Gruenloh

“ I am blessed to have known Kim for more years than I can count. Kim is one of a few people whom I admire. She had so much courage facing her life in the midst of a lot of confusion over her many health problems, managing multiple family issues and relationships, and trying to finish raising her children. Her faith in God and love for life was a testament to me about rising above adversity and keeping my eyes on our Lord for His blessings in the middle of pain and suffering. This was not the life Kim chose for herself but one she was forced to accept from God. I believe she helped show us how to live with grace and love for others under tremendous pressure. I believe deeply she is now with God and a one of His many shining angels leading others to grow closer to our Lord. My deepest sympathy to Mark and her children and extended family in their loss.
