

Klysta Lanell Breshears

February 19, 2011

Klysta Lanell Breshears, age 41, of Versailles, passed away Saturday, February 19, 2011, at her home. She was born August 20, 1969, in Kansas City, Missouri, the daughter of James Arthur and Lenora Williams Schriever. She was united in marriage to Scott Breshears, who survives in Sunrise Beach, Missouri. Klysta attended the West Lake Christian Church in Laurie. She was an avid reader, especially the Bible. She also enjoyed cooking, sun bathing, and interior decorating. Most of all, she was a very loving mother, and a wonderful sister. In addition to her husband, she is survived by her sons, Michael E. Hayden and Demetrius A. Hayden both of Versailles; her mother and step-father, Lenora and Robert Carver of Tonganoxie, Kansas; her father and step-mother, James and Gay Schriever of Kearney, Missouri; her significant other, Ralph Chapman of the home; her brother, Jeff Schriever of Wichita, Kansas; her sisters, Dusti Jean Dusek and Andrea Marie Dusek both of Kansas City, Kansas and Jeana Hutzell of Liberty, Missouri; and many other relatives and friends. A memorial service will be held at a later date. Expressions of sympathy may be left online at www.kidwellgarber.com. Cremation arrangements are under the direction of the Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home of Versailles.

Although it was an exciting, happy, and memorable time, had we known it would be our last, I wonder if we would have done something different. I miss our talks and times we just sat together in silence, comfortable being mom and daughter. I miss you my pet so very much Love you*

“ I visit today with a heavy heart and I am sure it is because I am missing you Dad and Meters. Without you, the world seems so worthless and filled with chaos. I want so badly to just feel you in a big hug to kiss your cheek and tell you I love you. I know at the least we would gain strength from each other. I miss you so very much my daughter.

“ This will be our 11th Christmas without my beautiful daughter. I can't express how hard the holidays and every day without is. It seems occasions such as this make the memories come on so strong they wrench my heart longing to see your smile when you open gifts, or how you tuck into the food. your laughter at the times we are all gathered and cracking jokes or telling stories of the past. I miss you my love and I will until the day we can be together again. I love you so much.

“ Today is the day you became a momma, and I became a grammie, I miss you and know Your baby boy is missing you and his brother so very much. I wish there were a way you could let Michael know how very proud of him you are because I know you are. He is such a good man, and the things he has overcome have been hard, but he will never overcome the emptiness he has from losing you and Demetrius. We will celebrate him today his 34 yrs with us, and love him with all the love we can. I love and miss you, my sweet girl hug the loved ones there with you.

“ My dear sweet angel, sitting here in the early hour of the day thinking of you and Daddy, he used to sit and look at your picture and cry and say, "I miss our girl" I pray you found each other in the afterlife. I know Demetrius is with you, and I hope you both can help Michael through the tough times he has. He wears his heart on his sleeve, he just wants his momma, and I realize that, and Dusti and I try to be there for him, but I know we can never take the place of you and your love. I love you, my pet & I miss you so much we all do.

We just don't know how to put pieces together again, we love so deeply and hurt so easily, when you were here you spanned that bridge for all of us. You were our commonsense. I miss you so very much and for so many reasons this is but one. Rest easy my beautiful child know that you are missed & loved every day. Hold our Demetrius tightly in love he was a shining star just like his momma we miss you both.*

“ I envisioned your journey in my mind and heart God’s way of helping me to dismiss the memory of my last view of you my sweet. As you stood on that mountain top, white robe flowing dark hair with streaks of the silver you always wanted your eyes are flashing with happiness and joy and OH they are pain free for the first time in years! You are reaching out your long thin fingers across the vast valley , your hand ready for Him to grasp in his beautifully scarred palms. He smiles and says ” the right hand of my Father awaits you, for it is your time” you look back one more time and for a minute sadness fills you, a tear slides down your cheek Jesus’ warm hand draws you back to him and you smile once more “I am so sad ” you say He smiles gently , holds your hand and speaks “My child your time on Earth is done, my Father wants you to have the rewards He promised, for you have been a strong and faithful servant” This vision that I had gave me peace but did not remove all of my sorrow for I am selfish and wanted you to stay with all of us for many more tomorrows But Heaven needed you more than we did and our lessons are yet to be learned. Your passing has changed us all some for the better, some not, those of us true to your memory celebrate and grieve our life without you; so bear with us your loved ones left behind, wait for us and know we live each day loving you still.

Len Carver - August 12, 2019 at 09:59 PM

“ *Eight years of my heart bleeding
From the gaping hole left there
The day my child took her last breath.
It is said there is nothing worse for a parent than to lose a child and I, unfortunately, know too well how true that statement is. The normal life is no longer, there is pain and emptiness to cope with daily.
Birthdays come and you wish you were baking a cake and wrapping gifts, instead, you turn the pages of old photo albums viewing the captured moments of birthdays past, with silly hats, candles & brightly decorated cakes.
Holidays come and go with an empty chair to "remember" and yes to honor sometimes it helps as others recite time spent with the loved one in laughter, other times it is a painful reminder as you look upon that empty chair and the heart-wrenching pain grabs you and takes your breath away.
There is no longer a "normal" in your life, I know.
The last eight years have changed me personally from a strong woman who could handle life and all it threw my way, now, now I am but an empty shell. I am broken, life has kicked me over and over and I have not the strength to pull up my boot straps and be who I once was. I am no longer the clear thinking, get it done, quick to resolve situations person I once was. I have forgotten how to laugh, to live and be. Now I exist, I just exist. I envy those that can go back to normal I cannot, the pieces of me are scattered over the waters in The Lake of the Ozark, MO with the ashes of my beautiful child.*

But you don't answer when I call out for you

The wrenching sobs and flowing tears
Tear my heart into...again.. .and again
You are gone from me ...forever..*

“ MUSIC

*She listens to the old music of forty years ago
It helps her in some perverse way as she remembers the little girl that grabbed her hand and made her dance to the old ballads of those such as Patsy Cline, Loretta, Tammy Wynette.
Singing at the top of their lungs or barely a whisper
Those little hands holding hers so tightly knowing that was the best and safest place to be*

For so long it was just the two of them and they grew together this teenage mom and her baby of such delight.

*The love that came with the birth of this child, hurt in it's intensity. The purity of that love never changed nor that intensity.
It was a love so dear and was to go on forever until someone decided life of the young woman was of no use and took it from her.*

Now the old before her time woman, listens to the old music of forty years ago and walks the paths of memories and cries for the loss of her first-born child.

“ We place our hearts in the hard frozen ground shedding tears over the coffin turning them to icicles to melt and flow again, as they will time and again from this day forward.

We've placed the spray of flowers, plucking one or two as a memento as if we should ever need reminding.

Young and old we put in beautiful boxes, subconsciously believing the more beautiful the box the more others know how deep our love.

We place them one at a time or 17, 26, or 100's

No matter what has caused us to buy tiny plots of ground all lined up with numbers and names individually or in masses.

Down into the hardened ground, the dark, to never see the light again Never to laugh, dance, love, live.

Fragments of dust, the best of us is gone.

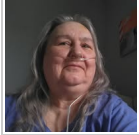

So hard to accept, to cope, to understand

Why the best of us is gone.

I am back in contact with your mom and I wanted you to know that even though we lost contact many years ago, does not mean that you have not crossed my mind over the years. I was so deeply hurt to hear your mom tell me about your passing. Deeply hurt for myself for losing that contact with you and deeply hurt for your family, your mom who suffers on a daily basis while knowing that someday, we will all be together in God's kingdom. “ Year after year the candle stood in the window guiding you home
Our hearts filled with anticipation and anxiety until your arrival
As you turned into the drive I would whisper “thank you Lord”
Now, now the candle in the window replaced by a black wreath, your picture hung in the center with grosgrain ribbon
The anxiety now is only in our voices as we cry out “Why Lord, why
?”
The void left in my heart... unfilled
The longing that flares like the flame of that candle reminds
Of your sweet breath upon my cheek,
Long arms about my shoulders in hugs once more Bittersweet memories for you.
Like the flame of that candle...gone
My heart holds now only your memory where new ones we should be making.

“ I woke this morning missing you and your sisters. As the day has progressed memories of you on early summer days such as this, not to warm sun shining, everything so green and a little breeze oh how you loved days such as this. I miss your beautiful smile my daughter, I miss and love you so so very much.

“ I dream of you and wake believing you are here
But you don't answer when I call out for you
The sledgehammer hits my heart taking my breath
The wrenching sobs and flowing tears
Tear my heart into...again.. .and again
You are gone from me ...forever...

“ Missing you so so much my beautiful angel. Life here is so hard without you, I so want to pick up the phone to call you or come for a visit to sit and share our hearts. But life is not like that anymore, empty arms and a grieving heart are what I leave with. The agony of having to tell you of family and all the ways we have gone wrong in words, action and deeds. We need your strong voice to remind us of the love we share and that we should respect and love one another because we are blood, but you are no longer able to reach out to us and that hurts, but nothing hurts as much as not having you here. I love you sweet girl and I miss you so so very much.

“ Once again, I feel the emptiness, cry tears, and wonder will this feeling ever leave me?

I hug the ones I love a little tighter, a little longer fighting back the tears, trying to appear "normal" "strong" "coping well"

Inside my gut wrenches, my lungs struggle for air, my body responds with intense pain with no way to sanely release the grief I bear.

If I let it all out it would be an earth shattering scream, never ending, until I coughed and blood would appear from the rawness of my throat.

There is forever an emptiness within, life is not like it once was and never ever will it be so again.

There will always be the sound of your laughter in my heart, the feel of your arms about my neck, the whisper of your voice "Momma I love you"

Time heals all wounds it is said, NO, NO, it does not. Sometimes things are normal but not often, holidays, the angelversary, your birthdays, family dinners then BAM life smacks me in the face again, your gone and your not coming back.

You completed our family and now grieving the loss of you has taken your place, our hearts are broken and we cry tears for we have lost an integral part of ourselves.

I, I miss you my beautiful daughter and my public persona must be picked up and I must move on putting on my mask the one that says "I am okay, my life is good" all the while grief lingers reminding me my life will never be okay again, never be good again.

I find myself thinking of you often. I was only in your family for a mere five years but always considered you a sister. I was so young when I began my relationship with your brother and you were always there to help me, teaching me how to be a good wife and mother. Thank you for being that influence. Thank you for showing me the way. My greatest memory of you was listening to you sing at big rock church. It was the voice of an angel. Rest in peace dear friend*

If not for the Lord I would not have survived this three years, without you. I have you looking over my shoulder each day keeping you close and still being there for each other and give our Lord Jesus Christ the praise and glory for giving me strength to keep going. I want you to know it was an honor to be your mom and I am so grateful to have had you for the years I did. I feel so blessed to have had all the years of you growing up, wish a lot had been done differently but life is what it is for all is Gods plan and purpose. Lessons given and lessons learned.

“ Oh baby girl, momma has finally pulled herself up from the spiraling depths of depression of the holidays and had a moment to tell you that I hoes your Christmas in heaven was good ...I know it had to be spectacular! I have come to the conclusion that I am not honoring you by always being so depressed, I am hoping to honor you with the joy you had many years ago...although thoughts of you when you were a little girl and as a teen make me cry as much as memories of you as an adult. I miss you so so very much and I know that Dusti Jeans and Eric do too. Dad still won't talk about you and does not know how to console me when I need to talk about you. It is hard not having anyone to talk to about you. we are such a dysfunctional family! You and I seemed to be the only 'true' family the rest seemed to be pulled in so many directions they don't have a sense of 'family'. Well I better go my beautiful daughter , I want to thank you for the many years we had together and the joy and love you brought to my life. “ KLYSTA LaNELL SCHRIEVER BRESHEARS AUGUST 20, 1969 ~ FEBRUARY 19, 2011

IF IT WILL BOTHER YOU READING ABOUT HER AND MY MEMORIES PLEASE MOVE ON TO ANOTHER BLOG PLEASE.

It has been six hundred seventy one days since my daughter took her last breath here on earth and I am that many days heartbroken. I miss her beautiful smile, laugh and hugs. I miss that coal black hair she inherited from her father's side, the thickness and slight wave across her shoulders. She had beautiful long thin fingers what I call 'piano players hands and fingers' her ring size was a five and a half on her largest finger. But boy did she have big feet we used to tease her over those size 10's and she hated her crooked toes. To me she was perfect, tall and thin, five foot eight inches yet she loved high heels.

Klysta loved to cook and she was quite good at it she especially liked seafood dishes. She was always in the water and I can't remember but a few times in her life she did not have some aquatic creature floating somewhere. Not only did she love the creatures she was like a water nymph herself, I would place her in the bath tub when she was little and would get upset about something I just sat and read or watched her, she could entertain herself until her little pink fingers and toes were wrinkled and puckered. As an adult if she couldn't get to the pool or lake she would fill whatever was big enough to hold her and in she would go.

As a young woman she could learn anything she set her mind to and learned it quickly. She moved to California as a new wife and mother, needing a job, she didn't start at the bottom and work up she applied for and obtained a position as the administrative assistant to one of the vice presidents to Ford Motor Company. When she called home to tell me of the new position I questioned her abilities her reply was I found out what they needed went to the library checked out the computer books studied them that night went in the next day tested out and got the job. I was so very proud of her but I should have known she was the same way about everything in life if she could learn she would.

As a teenager in middle school she won a best grooming contest held over a weeks' time judged by the health/pe teacher. Her picture and comments were in the local newspaper, if the school only knew what a monster that created I nearly went broke with her shampoos and bath needs. Every new product ended up in our bathroom and the aroma from there could be gardenias one day to lilacs or lavender the next. She was a friend to all she met never meeting a stranger, she was my best friend as she was to her sisters and many others. If you needed her she was there for you, but she would seldom share her own needs. Many I time I would call her and say what is going on or what is wrong she would reply how do you know when to call momma, she had a habit of not calling or coming home when things in her life were going wrong or she was in trouble financially or many other things her response if I asked why didn't you tell me was she did not want to worry me.

She loved being a mom to her two sons although she never thought she was good enough no matter how much I told her how proud of her I was and what a good job she was doing. She loved those two boys beyond reason or good sense at times. As her sons became older she called me and apologized for all the trouble she had caused as a teenager, I reassured her she was not a problem and that her sons were finding their independence it wasn't that she was a bad mother. She worried still that she had not done right by me or her boys, she gave me the utmost respect and love and oh how I miss that.

I miss feeling those long arms wrapping around me from behind and her breath and voice on my ear saying "I love you momma" or asking if I needed help if I was cooking. I miss dancing with her as we listened to Gloria Gaynor's "I Will Survive" or Tammy Wynette's "Divorce" she loved when we cleaned house dancing with our dust clothes or brooms and mops using them as microphones.

Klysta loved people and she loved

I am so glad that at long last I have finally found my way to our Lord God. He is so so good to me. I hated him for taking you and Andrea from me but I have come to accept what his plan is greater than any plan, thought or need I might have. He cares for me and has a plan and a purpose for my life my only regret I did not know enough nor was I smart enough to embed you girls in a christian home, we would have been better off. but thank God Praise the Lord he has made himself known now in my life so that when it is my time I can join you in heaven. I think of you always but very heavily missing you I guess because this is the time of year we started making plans for you to come home for the holidays and what we were going to do. It hasn't been but four years since you came home for a week to have momma time and you helped me decorate and then you decortated the nine foot tree in the beautiful butterfly woodland look. Oh it was one of the prettiest trees ever! I wish I could find the photos but seems I have misplaced so many and so much since moving. I only know I feel like I lost two daughters when you died. I haven't heard from the boys since the 22nd when they came to our renewal but d is going to college full time and working full time, M is looking for work I suppose. eric has grown so much emotionally, physically and smart oh my gosh he is such a brainy kid. rest of the family is ok Just all getting older and having the problems of such. I go friday for a scope to see if the kidney is dead then the following week to see about the lungs ( I fear cancer) but that will be ok if it is. dad has lost nearly 50 lbs in a bout 7 weeks he is just skin hanging on bones and in so much pain it won't be long and he will be with you. I don't know what I will do then but I will survive. I am working on being more tolerant with him when I have to tell him five or six times something because he forgets. At leaste isn't driving much anymore and if he does insist I worry til he gets back. I activated the app on his phone so we won't be looking for him for hours again. Well I better go I am tired and just want to sleep I love you my daughter and I miss you so much Keep watching over your sons and sisters please.~ Momma

“ Every tear I cry, there is another eye somewhere that weeps and cries too for every day my heart breaks anew, there is another heart somewhere breaking too
For every "why my child" I scream, there is another voice somewhere that screams 'noooo, not mine too'

“ *As i sit here in Heaven and watch you everyday. ?..*•*

I try and let you know with signs I never went away. I hear you when your laughing and i watch you as you sleep, I even place my arms around you to calm you as you weep. I see you wish the days away as you beg to have me home so i try to send you messages, so you know your not alone. Don't feel Guilty that you have a Life that was denied to me. Oh, Heaven is truly Beautiful, just you wait and see. Please live your Life and laugh again, Enjoy yourself, be free! Then i'll know with every breath you take your taking one for me. ..?

My beautiful angel all I thought I was accomplishing for you and your boys has fallen apart d is still going to school and working but he and Grandpa fight all the time, Mike iss back down at the lake who knows what he's doing.

Andrea has lost her mind literally she is back with rob and so mentally ill all I can do is pray for her and Devlin. I want so badly to take him and keep him while she goes in to the hospital and gets her self straightened out or at least on proper meds and gets some prospective. But that won't happen. dusti and Eric I don't know she is coming around more but there is a secretiveness to her tht I can't quite trust.

Jeana made it thru her surgery hope she stays well Rob (Jeana's husband) will be going to surgery sometime this month both of their surgeries life threatening due to other circumstances. Dads alzheimers is so much worse and he has lost about 50-60 pounds won't get checked out. Me well 10 days in critical care icu last month 56K for 3 days alone hate to see the rest oh well I don't care I just figure as long as I can get to heaven and be with you I will be ok and to heck with everyone ekls can you tell I am in the anger stage again of grieving for you. I just have to forgive Ralph but how do I do that sis? how? when I trusted him but then he showed me by actions etc that he did take your life why why just because you were coming home why that just just isn't conceivable to me. I need to go baby girl but know I think of you obsessively and andrea too I lost both of you and it is killing me. I love you so much

I have been in contact with Rita Deml, and she told me of Klysta's death.*

I would so like to gather family data for my geneology family tree, and share my accumulated information with anyone in the family who would be interested. I have family information that goes back to the late 1700's.

“ End of May and I haven't been here for a few weeks I haven't forgotten and I am keeping my promise to keep your name and all out there. life is still drama but this time of my own making. just so lonely and missing you.
you ould be so proud of Demetrius he starts college next week and he is working 2 jobs he is really focused and wants to make you proud. Mike is Mike works a bit gets pay and quits. Andrea has completely left family and we all worry about her and Devlin so if you could keep an extra hand in there that would be wonderful. Same with Dusti Jean. The end times are near sissy and I am glad you are not here to go thru it but oh baby girl I miss you so much. I am trying to stay upbeat as I was told no one wants to be around me because I suck the happiness out of everyone by being so unhappy and sad. So I am trying to be better. Love you and miss you my beautiful angel.

“ A limb has fallen from the family tree
I keep hearing a voice that says-Grieve not for me
Remembr the best times, the laughter,the song
The good life I lived while I was strong Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through My mind is at ease, my soul at rest
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed Continue traditions, no matter how small
Go on with your life, dont worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin

“ I can not believe it has been 20 days since I have visited.I am so sorry my beautiful daughter, we moved into the house and have a lot of work going on but we are getting closer to moving furniture in. Michael your beautiful son has been such a wonderful help I don't know how I would do without him. Demetruiis is working again this year with Andrea and still fighting with daeshawna . He is to put it crudely thinking with the head in his pants and not the head on his shoulders. But not to worry lil momma we are all pulling for both boys and they are really showing their sense of family, it helps that we can say 'do you think your momma would be proud of you for this or that?' usually gets them to thinking. Daddy is getting worse everyday so I am of course in a big hurry to get house done to get his routine back. I suppose within this next year I will lose him. That is something I am of course not looking forward to.
Baby girl I want you to know you are loved and missed soo sooo very much. Our lives are just off-kilter each day without you. I love and miss you and so does everyone else and we all think we miss you more than the next one. I believe its about equal. Take care my love watch over us and please be there for Daddy when he comes home. I love you.

“ Remember Me In Your Heart

*To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful, I will never return,
To the angry, I was cheated,
But to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.*

*I cannot speak, but I can listen.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So as you stand upon a shore gazing at a beautiful sea . . .
As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity . . . .
Remember me.*

*Remember me in your heart:
Your thoughts, and your memories,
Of the times we loved,
The times we cried,
The times we fought,
The times we laughed.
For if you always think of me,
I will never have gone.*

*I Have an Angel in Heaven who i miss every single day
Unfortunately there time on Earth was up and they couldn't stay
I love and miss my Angel more than words can ever say
I will never be the person i used to be,this has changed me into a new
'Me'
The one that you can all see
Life does go on i agree
BUT slowly, at my pace, and in my own way
This is the way it will be “ 353 days ago just seven days from now you were gathered in the arms of Jesus and taken to sit on the right hand of His Father, I wish I could know why. it is easy to say your time on earth was through but that's not true you weren't through being our beautiful daughter, sister, mother aunt or friend.

All we have are the memories and the love in our hearts for you and the physical and emotional pain of knowing you are gone forever.

There is not a day that I don't think of you many many times, I remember the fun times we had and how we would have our spats but we always made up quickly not wanting to miss a moment of our time in silly or serious squabbles. We respected one another too much for that. How we had more in common as you grew older and it was such a joy to find we were friends and mother daughter it was like a bonus. I loved going to the thrift stores or yard sales with you, your creativity brought many beautiful pieces to both of our homes. Klysta I am so glad I came to the hospital with you and spent the night when you had surgery it was like old times when we stayed up all night talking. You were my best friend and daughter and I miss you so much , My heart has this hole that seems to grow from all the tears I shed missing you so badly.

I was so proud of the beautiful woman you grew into I was envious of your faith and knowledge in the Lord and His word. 353 days ago just seven days from now you were gathered in the arms of Jesus and taken to sit on the right hand of His Father, I wish I could know why. it is easy to say your time on earth was through but that's not true you weren't through being our beautiful daughter, sister, mother aunt or friend.

“ *The beauty of your smile, sparkle of your eyes
How you enjoyed life and giving to others
Oh my beautiful daughter how, how I miss these things and more.
How many times I've cried out your name or dialed your number Scent of your shampoo , a family members facial expression or movement of their head or hand makes my heart jump my breath catch, /seeing a long black leather coat or a dress
I know you would like is so hard to look and then remember I can't buy that for you for you have no need of worldly goods.
My heart broke again when your Daddy sat in his chair on his birthday he welled up looked at me and said "no card with Daddy Carver this year"
He always looked forward to the cards you sent that way.
The void in our lives now is as vast as all the oceans put together and then some.
You are and will be forever missed my beautiful angel.*

“ I don't know how many people visit this site but if you do I truly appreciate it.
If you visit here then I would like to ask for your help, you see there is an open homicide investigation through the Morgan County Sheriffs Office that seems stalled. So I am begging each and every person from every where if you knew our beautiful Klysta please call the Morgan County Sheriffs office and tell them to solve this murder! I was calling each week but got tired of Detective Witt telling me "Someday someone will slip up and say something then we'll get em". I'm sorry but my daughters life was taken and sitting around waiting for someone to slip doesn't ease my heart or obtain justice. So here is the # please call. 1-573-378-5481 and Detective Ron Witts Extension is 293.

“ My beautiful angel, how I hurt for your not being here, I miss you so much and the hurt seems to be getting harder to bear. I keep seeing you lying there at the funeral home with you looking as if you could wake any moment and oh how I wished you could, Baby girl I am trying to find someone like the justice people or cold case people to look into what happened and why your life was taken, Please know I haven't forgotten just not sure where to turn but thank heavens for computers they let me search and send my letters. Some one will take an interest and help us get what we need to get justice and throw him in jail.

Sorry honey just on my rant. I get so upset when I think aabout how he could do this and then walk around free. I love you baby girl “ Tomorrow is Thanksgiving and oh how sad it is without you. I just don't know how I am going to do as right now and this whole week has been hard. My heart and mind has been filled with the memories of holidays past with you here. Now, now not only do we not have you we don't have the boys either. Dusti is working and sent Eric to Debbie Hernandez and Devlin and Andrea who knows I hope they have somewhere to go that they want to be. I love you daughter and miss you so much and even though we won't have Thanksgiving you will be thought of and missed soooo much. I love and miss you as does Daddy he sits and looks at your picture and your remains and just wells up. We are thankful we had you for the 41 yrs God allowed.

Len Carver - November 19, 2011 at 02:26 AM

“ To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say... but first of all, to let you know, that I arrived okay.
I'm writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above.
Here, there's no more tears of sadness; here is just eternal love.

*Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight.
Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night.
That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through,
God picked me up and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you."*

It's good to have you back again; you were missed while you were gone.

*As for your dearest family, they'll be here later on.
I need you here badly; you're part of my plan.
There's so much that we have to do, to help our mortal man.*

*God gave me a list of things, that he wished for me to do.
And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you.
And when you lie in bed at night, the day's chores put to flight.
God and I are closest to you....in the middle of the night.*

*When you think of my life on earth, and all those loving years because you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears.
But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain.
Remember there would be no flowers, unless there was some rain.*

*I wish that I could tell you all that God has planned.
But if I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand.
But one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is o'er.
I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before.*

*There are many rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb;
but together we can do it by taking one day at a time.
It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too... that as you give unto the world, the world will give to you.*

*If you can help somebody who's in sorrow and pain, then you can say to God at night....."My day was not in vain."
And now I am contented....that my life has been worthwhile, knowing as I passed along the way, I made somebody smile.*

*So if you meet somebody who is sad and feeling low, just lend a hand to pick him up, as on your way you go.
When you're walking down the street, and you've got me on your mind;
I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind.*

And when it's time for you to go.... from that body to be free, remember you're not going.....you're coming here to me.

Ruth Ann Mahaffey (author)

“ Hi baby girl.. just want to tell you how much I love and miss you. I have booked a room at the B&B for aunt Debbie and I so we can spend the weekend at your place and frogs to celebrate your bd for you. your friend Rusty is going to do a big tribute for you to. Ralph got the 3 pigs torn down memories were made there for the two of you it ws kind hard on him. He has a new fairly steady job now that is better for his health but as with everything there it is seasonal. Demetrius worked his 1st day 16 hrs. but he liked it and he impressed the boss so they are moving him from part time to 40 hrs. Mike I don't know about. Your sisters are still being the witches that only they can be but I am still trying to have a relationship with them but after 30 yrs of trying you would think I would learn. How I wish you were here to talk to you always helped me with your listening and advice. know sissy that you are loved and missed terribly~~Mom

*Hello. My name is Lisa. Klysta was a dear friend to me in our early 20's in KCMO. I went to visit her when she moved to Cali. We kept in touch for a bit then fell out of touch after I moved back to MN. I often thought of her and periodically would try to locate her. I am sadden that my most recent search has taken me here. Klysta was a very beautiful women both inside and out. She always was compassionate and caring. She and I had a special bond, two young women that moved away from home very early... we use to share are dreams and lots of other stuff, things that girlfrnds do.. I'm very sorry for your loss..and only wished I could have found her sooner! I will keep my found memories of Klysta deep in my heart, and her sons and your family in my prayers. “ Feeling better for the moment, hoping to see Ralph this weekend. He misses you so much and we tend to weep for you together. If he makes it this weekend I'm hoping together we can get past crying every time we talk about you. You were so beautiful in life and that is the memory we want to keep. So many of your friends have told me stories of the impact you had on their lives. I am so proud of you and how many you brought to God. I was always proud of you my daughter always , I was never ashamed of you and Im sorry I didn't express that more. I love and miss you sissy so so much, but I know your in a better place and without pain and that is so important to me that you are now free of all the chains that bound you here on earth. ~~Momma

“ My angel, my pet we held your Memorial Service last Sunday , I was hoping for closure of some kind unfortunately it did not come or it did and I have not recognized it. You tend to be on my mind even more each day. My darling daughter you will never be forgotten a part of me was with you when you were born and now a peice of my heart is with you in heaven and I can't wait for us to be together again. I miss you so so much. No one , no one will ever know what the loss of a child no matter the age at loss unless they have lost a child will ever understand the pain , the hurt, emptiness and confusion , the physical pain of mind, body and soul as a mother. I carried you from conception to birth in my womb giving you nutrients of my body to make strong, beautiful and smart all of which you were, you were my my pride and joy , my best friend no one will ever know the bond we had as my first born. I love and miss you my daughter. Hope to see you soon.

“ *Teach me to number my days
And count every moment before it slips away Taking all the colors before they fade to gray I don't want to miss even just a second more of this*

*It happens in a blink
It happens in a flash
...It happens in the time it takes to look back I try to hold on tight, but there's no stopping time What is it I've done with my life It happens in a blink*

*When it's all said and done
No one remembers how far we have run
The only thing that matters is how we have loved I don't want to miss even just a second more of this*

*It happens in a blink
it happens in a flash
it happens in the time it takes to look back I try to hold on tight but there's no stopping time What is it I've done with my life It happens

“ I put together the collage for your service today and in doing so found the little soft brown tuft of hair from your very first haircut given to you by Grandma Phyllis. Here I was looking at the date that she had written and feeling your hair in my hand, oh the overwhelming sadness that went through me! Dad worked on the matting and putting 8x10's together and he broke down looking at how beautiful you were. Oh my sweet sweet Klysta you are loved so much and missed so badly. I can't wait to join you but I know I must, my joining you will be in Gods time not mine . I love you my pet.~~Mom

“ Going thru the pictures so many memories flood my mind and heart. Your first day at kindergarten was the same day your baby sister Dusti-Jean came home from hospital, up until that day you were very excited, somewhere along the way home you decided to not wait for Aunt Pat to walk you ; you left the school and went to grandma Jeans...scared me to death we couldn't find you anywhere finally finally grandma Jean called said you were there, what a relief. Your remark when I asked why you went there " scared of new baby". My how things changed, the two of you became best of friends and when another sister came along five yrs. later you both fought over who was going to care for her. My beautiful Klysta I reach for the phone to call you then realize your not there, so I talk to you in my mind and heart. I love you my darling daughter~~Mom

“ When we lived in Colombus, Nebraska most of the time it was just the 2 of us and we would dance and sing. You knew all the words to Tammy Wynettes D.I.V.O.R.C.E, and every Motown song I ever played. Saturday Mornings were for cleaning and laundry we would put Motown on and dance, sing and clean, after your favorite breakfast of scrambled eggs w/cheese, canned spinach and toast. You were such a beautiful little girl not only physically but an inner beauty as well. I miss you daughter oh so much. Love you forever & a day ~~Mom
