“ Not everyone truly finds the "love or their life". Karin and Larry's life together was certainly that special kind of caring love that demonstrates their devotion to each other. The friendship that has developed between both of you and myself has been treasure to me and a greatly valued part of my life. It has been hard to watch the two of you struggle so hard these past few years as his cancer took over his life - and yours. I know this transition is going to be hard and the house is going to feel really empty. Please know that I will be here for you - even if you just need to talk. Huge hug to you!

“ Rest in peace dear, sweet Larry. You fought a long, hard battle and now you are at peace. I always enjoyed seeing you and visiting when I would come to see my dear friend, your beautiful wife Karin. You too had such a wonderful, loving relationship. You were a kind, caring man and I will always remember you with great fondness Larry. God speed....
