“ Uncle Leroy was solid man; a fair man; a loving Uncle. He was the kinda guy that would jump in when needed with no hesitation. In Christianity we call that Unconditional Love. I think of all the things he and our Uncles did during my life time. They were a team, with no reservations of doing what was right in both society and in God's eyes. My Sister (Gloria Jean) and I will miss and cherish all the things Leroy did to continue the Bacon Uncle tradition. He is at peace now Visiting his brothers and sisters, mom and dad, and wonderful Bertha who he loved so dearly.

I thank you Uncle Leroy for showing me how to be a Man in life; how to listen to God when talks and how to act when called upon. We will all be together soon. We love you very much and thank you for all you did for us. Grant and Gloria
