

Leta Fay Williams

October 3, 2005

Leta Fay Williams, age 83, of Gravois Mills, passed away Monday, October 3, 2005, at Capital Region Medical Center in Jefferson City. She was born November 11, 1921, in Morgan County, Missouri, the daughter of William B. and Adella Sutton Moore.

She was united in marriage on November 30, 1939, with George Clifford Williams, who preceded her in death on June 16, 1983.

Fay was a life long resident of Gravois Mills. She was a member of the Gravois Mills United Methodist Church, was a Deputy Sheriff in Gravois for 10 years, was instrumental in keeping the Post Office in town, and owned and operated several businesses in Gravois such as Squirrel Town and Vacation Village. During her retirement she enjoyed shell craft, embroidery, crochet, building, and working in her yard.

She is survived by one daughter, Mary Margaret Gerlt and husband Richard of Gravois Mills; two grandsons Bill Gerlt and wife Karen of Dallas, Texas, and Bob Gerlt and wife Lori of St. Charles, Missouri; four grandchildren Austin and Hannah Gerlt of St. Charles, and Deitrich and Nastasha Gerlt of Dallas, Texas; one sister, Linnie Waisner of Versailles; and one sister-in-law, Nona Moore of Laurie; and many other relatives and friends. In addition to her parents and husband, Fay was preceded in death by one daughter Judith Lee, one sister May Richardson, and four brothers, Keith, Freddie, Claudie, and Leslie Moore.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 A.M. Friday, October 7, 2005, at the Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home in Versailles. The family will receive friends from 10:00 A.M. to 11:00 A.M. Friday at the funeral home. Interment will be in the Versailles Cemetery. Memorial contributions are suggested to the Animal Orphanage Inc. in Versailles.
