

Lillian J. Taylor

April 9, 1927 - April 14, 2015

Lillian J. Taylor, age 88 of Stover, MO, passed away on April 14, 2015. Lillian was born on April 9, 1927 in Berryville, Arkansas, the daughter of Newell Franklin Snow and Jesse Myrtle (Holland) Snow.

Lillian worked at a defense plant in Wichita, KS 1944-1945; Navy Department in Washington, DC as a Clerk-Typist; J.C. Penney for 2 years; Social Security as a Clerk Typist and a Benefit Officer, Grade 8 as an Examiner (1/9/1969 – 8/17/1979) (11 years) when she retired.

Lillian enjoyed quilting, Yahtzee and dice games. Her favorite flowers were tulips.

Lillian is survived by her sons, James (Jim) Lee Taylor and wife, Retta of Stover, MO and Charles Lyle Taylor of Stover, MO; brother, Vern Snow and wife Jean of Marysville, KS; five grandchildren, Michelle Taylor, April White, Stephan Taylor, Kyla Moore and Cheryl Burnett; eight great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

Lillian was preceded in death by her husband, Robert, twin sister, Vivian Burton, sister, Charlene Johnson and sons, Ronald (Ronnie) Wayne Taylor and Larry Ray Taylor.

A Celebration of Life service will be held at First Baptist Church of Stover, at 3:00 pm on Sunday, April 26, 2015.

Lillian Snow joined the Christian Church in Wichita, KS (1944). The family wants to say a special thank you to the Golden Age Living Center for their care and attention during her stay with them and also the Hospice members who cared for her at the end. We also want to express our deepest appreciation to family and friends who sent cards, said a prayer, visited her at the nursing home or sent flowers during the past few weeks. It was her wish to be cremated. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

Cremation arrangements are under the direction and care of the Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home of Versailles.
