“ I’ve known Linda since I was in the first grade. She would take me to school along with Robbin and our siblings. I remember sitting in the front seat beside her I remember going to their house and hanging out and her talking about her love for literature. The last time I saw her back in March she talked about it then too. She was a very intelligent, friendly and sweet lady. She is now resting in heavenly peace.

“ Greg and I send our heartfelt condolences to you with the passing of your mom. It seems many of us from our supper club have had to walk this road now. The circle of life. You were the kind of daughter a parent is honored to have. We love you and are thinking of you now as you say so long until we meet again. Love and hugs from Barbara & Greg
