

Linda Sue Roberts-Parr

August 24, 1948 - December 15, 2025

Linda Sue (Allee) Roberts-Parr, age 77, of Gravois Mills, Missouri, met her Lord and Savior on December 15, 2025. Linda was born the daughter of Edward and Judith (Bruns) Allee on August 24, 1948, in Saint Joseph, Missouri.

Her life was rooted in her deep love for Christ. She invested countless hours studying the Word of God and sharing her faith. She was a member of First Baptist Church. Linda was a devoted homemaker who found joy in simple, meaningful moments—watching and identifying birds, delighting in the magic of her fairy gardens, made-from-scratch cooking, and tending to acres of landscaping projects and flower gardens. She balanced her green thumb with a daredevil spirit and a fondness for fast cars. Special-request birthday dinners with personalized desserts were expressions of her affection. Her creativity showed through ceramics, needlepoint, seamstress creations, and refinishing old pieces. She enjoyed antiquing and garage saling, especially when shared with her sister Sharon, and she took great pride in attending her grandsons' music and theatre productions.

Linda was adoringly cared for at home in her final months by Holly Jackson, whose compassion and selfless dedication brought comfort to both Linda and her family—her husband, Joseph Parr, and her loyal canines, Jack and Freckles. She was a woman of great strength, faith, and warmth who will be remembered for her kindred spirit and nurturing heart.

Linda is survived by her husband of five years, Joseph Parr; her siblings, Sharon Addington (Bill), Connie Modeer (David), and Gary Allee (Rhonda); her siblings-in-law, Charles Michael Roberts (Angie), Freddie Roberts, Renee Jackson (Mike), Theresa Roberts, and DeLisa Lamb (Kevin), Jim Parr, Donny Parr, Jerry Parr, Bill Parr, John Parr and David Parr; her children, Amy Moore (Kevin), John Bradley, Andrea Haggard, and Anthony Roberts; and her cherished grandchildren, Zachary Moore (Alyssa), Jake Moore, Nickie Mounce, Austin Haggard, Leah Haggard, Valentina De Rezende Bradley, a great-granddaughter to be, and several nieces, nephews, and friends.

Linda was preceded in death by her first husband, the late Charles E. Roberts, Jr., father of her children; her parents, Edward and Judith Allee; her parents-in-law, Albert and Emma Durham, Charles and Velva Roberts; and her sister-in-law, Sharon Boitel.

Linda's life will be celebrated during a private family gathering at a later date.

Cremation arrangements are under the direction and care of the Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home of Versailles.

“ This beautiful soul, will forever have a special place in my heart! I only wish I could've known her longer, but the short time I got to spend with her will forever live in my soul.

“ Linda and i first met at Gallatin Assembly of God where she and i eventually co-sponsored a young girls' group, Assembly's version if-you-will to "Brownies." We both had daughters the same age who went to school together until Charlie took a job in Sedalia and they moved down there, then eventually to Chillicothe. Our girls were great friends as were Linda and i and we continued to keep in touch, though not nearly as often as our DAILY encounters in Gallatin...some "good" and some "shenanigans" but all to be remembered and cherished. Love always to Amy, Andrea and Anthony and condolences to the entire family. Rosalind "Roz" Thompson-Marner
