“ My thoughts and prayers are with Lloyd's family. We attended Glensted School together a few years (he was older than I) and he helped with the Glensted School Reunion. The White family were great neighbors to us when they lived in Glensted.

“ I remember going out to Uncle Lloyd's and listening to them play gospel music. The Old Rugged Cross was my favorite. Aunt Nellie on the piano and Uncle Lloyd with his guitar and the boys playing guitar and everyone singing. Then we would also gather in the kitchen and Aunt Nellie would always make sure everyone had something to eat! At their house is where I first ate peanut butter on buttered toast. LOL!! Now I eat it all the time ...even still today! Sure am gonna miss you, Uncle Lloyd!! Love you so much!!
