

Lottie M. Jones

July 11, 2008

Lottie M. Jones, age 85, of Versailles, passed away from Alzheimer's Disease, Friday morning, July 11, 2008, at the Good Shepherd Care Center in Versailles. She was born October 15, 1922 at Linn Creek, MO, the daughter of John C. and Della J. Walls Breen.

On June 28, 1940 she married Louis Copeland who preceded her in death on September 10, 1973. On May 1, 1975 she married Vernon Jones who preceded her in death on September 28, 1991.

Lottie was a member of the First Baptist Church in Versailles, and the National Association of Retired Federal Employees. She was a homemaker and enjoyed gardening, cooking, canning, sewing, reading, and 'day trips', and decorating the luncheon tables for NARFE meetings. She had lived in Kansas City, Archie, and Harrisonville before moving to Versailles.

Surviving are her daughter, Deborah Copeland and granddaughter, Katharina Oesch, both of Raymore, MO; three sisters, Eunice Barrett and husband Earl, Joyce Stafford and husband John, and Mary Helen Kumberg and husband Junior, all of Versailles, as well as many other relatives and friends. In addition to her parents and husbands she was preceded in death by three brothers, Lester and Edward Coleman, and Bert Breen, and two sisters, Thelma Sterling and Grace Thatcher.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p.m. Monday, July 14, at the Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home in Versailles, with Dr. Todd Forman officiating. Todd Forman sang "Amazing Grace". Interment was in the West Lawn Addition of the Versailles Cemetery. Casketbearers were Ed McNeil, Mark Stafford, Jim Thatcher, Terry Thatcher, Jim Kumberg, and Doug Slayton. Sympathy condolences may be sent online at www.kidwellgarber.com. The family suggests memorial contributions to Missouri River Hospice or Good Shepherd Care Center. Arrangements were under the direction of the Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home of Versailles.
