“ Mr . Chamberlain was the first person to greet you in the high school lobby every morning. He addressed every student with the same respect and warm smile. The man I met then remained the man I knew as an adult: sincere, genuine, and compassionate. He was not only our high school counselor but later our class sponsor. Each of us who attended our 15th class reunion felt honored to see him there! He still cared! We should not have been so shocked, that was the man he was. Still and always. Blessings Kent and families. A great man and great loss.
