“Louisa was one of the kindest, wisest women I’ve ever known. I loved and respected her dearly, as did everyone I know of that worked “on the floor” at Good Shepherd. She had a beautiful, understanding Soul. Her gentle pat on the back and “you love your Grandmother very much, don’t you?”, when my Grandma was dying (I had cut classes & walked from the High School to be at her side) meant more than any words she could have spoken. Twenty years later I was able to thank her for her kindness. My family was out in the hall oblivious to my pain, while she saw that a teenager was mourning alone and stepped in to comfort me. That was the typical Louisa: observing everything, unobtrusively stepping in and gently guiding situations and patient care, then quick-stepping down the hall to the next mission. 💕💕 Heaven has gained an exceptional person to joyfully join her “Special Friend”, parents, siblings, and those who have gone before. The World will be emptier, but she certainly fulfilled the goals of this Earthly Life: to become a better person and help our fellow beings.”
