“ Madonna was my neighbor when we moved to the Lake. It took awhile for her to warm up to us and now knowing her stubbornness to ask for help. When she did take us up on the opportunity to assist her she became very open to us and trusted us. We would take her to Columbia to see Connie, her daughter, several trips to doctors office and lunch afterwards. I'm so happy and lucky to have had Madonna in our lives. We love you Madonna and will miss you.
