“ I'm Linda, Louise's sister. Our little Sprite has left us. She was a complicated, brave, strong, happy most of the time, and silly. Louise had a great love for her family. I recall several Halloweens when she dressed up with the grandchildren. She celebrated her 50th birthday by going parasailing. She helped teach me how to drive and I managed to knock one of the hubcaps off. .She had many perils to handle but she just kept trudging forward. I love my sister, she was my best friend. I will miss her always, as will many of us.

“ Louise was my cousin. There were 5 granddaughters within the same age group. 3 of us were 8 months apart. We so many adventurers and so much fun on our Grandpa and Grandms's farm. We were all city girls. Great memories! RIP Louise!
