“ Love the photographs!!! I had sent the ones I had to her a long time ago!! Just wanted to tell the story of how we met. I moved to San Diego in the 70's and attended a holiday party. As I was munching on a wonderful appetizer and chatting with a gentleman named Dave (and thinking how cute he was), I commented on how great the appetizer tasted. Dave then said his wife made them and would I like to meet her!!!! Our friendship started. As time rolled on and we each moved to different places, we kept in touch exchanging catch-up stories as our lives evolved. I was smitten with how beautifully and lovingly she interacted with their daughter, Debbie. I wanted to be adopted by her especially when I saw how she had built a life-sized horse for Debbie. Amazing the things she did and the joy/love she spread to those who were fortunate to be a part of her world.

Ms. Margaret, Peg, Peggy and all other wonderful names you were called.....Save a seat for me girlfriend and next we meet up we will catch up and laugh and giggle at all of our adventures. Warmest love and hugs to an incredible person.
