

Marjorie LeeVon duBos

February 20, 2008

In loving memory of Marjorie LeeVonn Colvin-Summa-duBos, passed away February 20, 2008, at her home in Camdenton, Missouri, after a long battle with Diabetes. She was born November 9, 1920, to Jack and Grace Colvin on the family farm north of Albany, Missouri

She was married to H.D. "Dale" Summa and he preceded her in death in June of 1982. In 1990, she married William "Bill" du Bos in Reno, Nevada, and he survives at the home.

Marg was a wonderful woman of God, and a great wife, mother, and grandmother. She was always cooking her famous fried chicken. She was always cheery and didn't know a stranger. She enjoyed chatting with anyone and would help them through life's ups and downs. She had her own way of making you feel loved and important. She didn't have fear of death, she would say, "The Lord will see me safe!" All who were lucky to know her and be a part of her life will miss her dearly. God bless and peace be with you. Memorial contributions may be made in her name to the American Diabetic Association.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by her daughter Linda Schanel and husband Jim of Cameron Park, CA; two step-children, Blair du Bos of Camdenton, MO, and Michelle du Bos of North Carolina; two sisters, Jackie Pickering of Camdenton, MO, and Gaye Widner of St. Joseph, MO; grandchildren, Robert and James Lindquist of Springfield, MO, Amanda, Jackie, Ray, John, Kim, and Venson Summa; great-grandchildren, Spencer, Destiny, Michaela, and Austin Lindquist, Rebecca, Breanna, Jessica, Terry, Curtis, and Sadie Summa.
