“ I worked with marsha at the nursing home in Tuscumbia and me and her were both cooks there and she would give me a ride to and from work cause we just lived down the street from each other. I just found out today she passed and I was just shocked. Me and marsha would have so many laughs together and I really looked up to her cause she was always blunt and to the point and never sugar coated anything and she had no filter but she loved animals with a passion. I seen some of her crafty stuff she did like lamp shades and I remember when she retired she said she's thinking about maybe having her own business. Patty if your reading this I remember marsha telling me that u said she needs to publish a book and I agree she should of. She is going to be dearly missed. Marsha turned me into the person I am today. I have no filter and I'm blunt and to the point and don't sugar coat anything. I'm thankful for being able to meet such a wonderful person who changed my life forever. I will miss her every day and think of her always. Me and her had the same middle name spelled the same way. Leigh. RIP marsha and fly high cause u earned your wings.

“ I will always remember the weekends at the ballpark with both Marsha and her twin, my wife Pattie, and Rae. She was a sweet and fun loving person and we will miss her and pray she will be reunited with her mom and dad in eternity.

“ Marsh is and was my other half. She was my rock and someone who I could truly trust and count on. My memories of her are so deep in my heart I could never forget the life we shared so closely. Marsh knew when to listen and when to talk. She was an "old soul" and knew what was important (especially when it came to any animal). I was never as artistic as Marsh but I tried to be. I always wanted to be like Marsh in many ways--she was strong in her beliefs and very respected. Her life was so full and I remember telling her that she should write a book because it would be a best-seller. She lived everywhere and had many, many life experiences, enough for two lives. Now that she's gone there will be huge void in my life--because I am her twin. Like I said in the beginning she was my other half--she protected me growing up and I ALWAYS had someone I could turn to who would listen and love me unconditionally. It's strange I won't have someone sharing our birthdate with this year. That was something only her and I shared. I would never change anything about our life growing up cause we had each other to rely on. I love her so much and miss her terribly. My life is forever changed.

I LOVE YOU MARSH.

“ I'm truly sorry to hear of Marsha's passing. She worked for me at Dorsey's Pit Stop and I could always count on her. We continued our friendship after closing the restaurant and I can say she was a very dear friend of mine. I will miss her very much as we always kept in touch.

Her passion was art, being creative and of course any animal in need of help. I'm glad I have some beautiful lanterns she made and we had always talked about her making a business out of her artwork.

She was always kind and a true people person who loved bar tending and serving our customers for many years!
