“ Mary Jo and Steve introduced us to our new home and welcomed us to the neighborhood. Her bubbly personality was contagious; she could bring a smile to your lips on even your worse days. She was simply a joy to be around. We will miss you, Mary Jo. But we know that God has a special angel in the kingdom.

“ Mary Jo was one of my dearest friends from third grade through college. We spent hours playing the game 'Aggravation' as grade-schoolers and roomed together our freshman year of college. She was a shining star, loving and caring for everyone. Her steadfast devotion to God was an inspiration throughout her life. I hold her close in my heart.
