“ I have many beautiful memories of Mary, starting with our Family Reunions and then their many trips to join me in Kansas where we met at my sister-in-law's home.

I have one of her embroidered quilts on my bed as a spread and also the pillow to match.

She and Milton have been very dear friends as well as relatives.

They both loved to introduce me as "AUNT Betty," since I am younger than Milton but I am proud to be his Aunt.

We will miss her smiling face and encouraging words.
