“ I met Mike at the Army Reserve meetings back in the 60s. We attended countless meetings and a few summer camps. We became fast friends. I remember that he could belch on demand and had a contagious laugh. He took a few of us flying out of Weiss Airfield in Fenton on Sunday evenings. Then, marriage and children came for both of us and we lost contact. He was one of the nicest guys I ever met. God Bless.

“ Dear Judi and Family,
I send my sincere condolences for you and your family. It was a pleasure to fly with Mike and he was a very good pilot. Always a gentleman and cared for what was happening in the cabin for the F/A's. When the Lord calls our loved ones home, he leaves a gift of memories in exchange. God Bless!
