Pat Morgan

Patricia Kay Morgan, age 72, of Stover, Missouri, passed away Tuesday, March 8, 2022 at her home. She was born December 15, 1949 in Peoria, Illinois, a daughter of the late Charles Edward and Delores Edith (Higgs) Kepler.

She was united in marriage to James Lee Morgan. Together they shared many happy years of marriage.

Pat was raised in Peoria, Illinois and attended Ridgewood High School. She worked as a Certified Nurses Aide in the home health industry and a paraprofessional for Sherwood Learning Center for many years. Pat and Jim moved to the Lake of the Ozarks area in 1991. In her spare time, she enjoyed knitting, puzzles, animals and planting flowers. Pat loved people and was always willing to help someone in need.

She was a member of Leeton Christian Church and the V.F.W. Auxiliary #5923 in Camdenton, Missouri.

Survivors include her husband James Lee of the home; five children, Jill M. Eubanks of Canton, Illinois, James Roy Graham of Dahinda, Illinois, Dawn

Anderson of Galesburg, Illinois, Tiffany Neff and husband Chris of East Peoria, Illinois and Nathan McIntyre of Knob Noster, Missouri; a sister, Marianne White of Dehindra, Illinois; a foster-sister, Linda Crum and husband Wayne of Wyoming, Illinois and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

A memorial service will be held at a later date in Illinois.

Memorial donations may be made to the Leeton Christian Church.

Arrangements are under the care and direction of the Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home of Versailles.

Tribute Wall

“ Patty lived across the street from us growing up in Peoria. We basically grew up together although she was a couple years older than me. Played baseball in the street with all the neighborhood kids, learned to dance, shared secrets and just enjoyed being kids. I am privileged to have known her. My prayers are with all of her family.
