February 2, 1952 - January 15, 2026

Patricia Leah Hagan, age 73, of Camdenton, passed away Thursday, January 15, 2026, at Capital Region Medical Center in Jefferson City. She was born February 2, 1952, in Mexico, Missouri, the daughter of the late Kermit Frank, Sr. and Ellen Arlene (Moxley) Head.

On August 12, 1972, she was united in marriage to Gary Lee Hagan, who preceded her in death on July 12, 2016. Though their time together was cut short, Patricia's love for Gary never faded, and she carried him in her heart always.

Patricia devoted her life to her family, always placing the needs of others before her own. She played an especially important role in helping raise her granddaughters, Rylee and Lorelei, being a steady and loving presence in their daily lives while their parents were at work. The bond they shared was deep and lasting.

She found joy in the simple things, time spent with family, caring for those she loved, and being there when she was needed most. She was extremely artistic and loved to paint, and was an avid reader. Her strength, compassion, and unwavering dedication will be remembered by all who knew her.

She is survived by her daughters, Sarah Russell (Chad), Rebecca Hagan

(Matthew), and Tessa Hagan; granddaughters, Rylee and Lorelei; brother, Kermit Head, Jr. (Lori); four nephews, a niece, and many friends. In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by her son, Patrick Reid Hagan, and a brother, Stephen Head.

A celebration of Patricia's life will be held at a later date.

Cremation arrangements are under the direction and care of the Kidwell-Garber Laurie/Sunrise Beach Chapel.
