

Patricia Marie Teague

September 6, 1951 - January 13, 2026

Patricia Marie (Campbell) Teague, age 74, of Syracuse, passed away Tuesday, January 13, 2026, at her home in Syracuse. She was born September 6, 1951, in Linn, Massachusetts, a daughter of the late Louis and Frances (Douglas) Campbell.

Pat Teague never knew a stranger. She loved fiercely and treated everyone as family.

The oldest of 12 children, taking care of others came naturally to her. She was an unofficial therapist and herbalist with a home remedy for every illness.

While short in stature, she was mighty in passion and would often stand on her tip-toes, raise her gravelly voice, and turn on her Boston accent when riled. She'd fight raccoons and opossums with vengeance and watch crime shows with an intensity of an investigator all while crocheting hats, socks, and mittens for every family member.

She and Charlie enjoyed traveling and dancing to old country music.

Her passion to decorate every square inch of the house in lighthouses and seasonal decor spilled into the yard and she was often found outside in her big black rubber boots digging in the flower garden, planting fake flowers, or painting garden ornaments.

Most of all, she loved to sit on the porch, often wrapped in blankets and chat.

Pat Teague was an amazing mother, friend, and homemaker.

Just like the lighthouses she cherished, she was a beacon of home for so many. Her light will forever shine on.

She is survived by her children Davyjoie (Beverly), Larry (Debra), Terri Hutchison (Craig), Troy Stemburger (Missy), Larry Stemburger (Christina); grandchildren Bryan, Domonic, Lilith, Payden, Samantha, David, Sheri, Kylie, Ashly, Kyle, Barrett, Wyatt Paige, and Ellie; great-grandchildren Zoey, Xavier, Coralise, Emalie, Lilianna, Coltin, and Kimberly; Her siblings Bonnie, Pauline, Laurie, Richard, and Rhonda with many nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by brothers Louis and Joseph, sisters Diann and Teressa, partner Charlie Stemburger, and grandsons Larry Teague, Branden Hedrick, and David Louis Teague.

Per her wishes, cremation is under the care and direction of Kidwell-Garber Funeral Home of Versailles. Private family services will be scheduled at a later date.
