“ Conventions were always more fun with John and Pat! John playing his music and Pat so proud of him. What great folks and Pat was a sweetheart always! Heaven has a new angel!

“ Sympathy and prayers to John, Diane, Donna and Dawn and their families and to our dear friend Bill Smith, her twin brother. We only had the privilege of meeting Pat once when Bill & Nancy invited us to lunch with the four of them. She truly did light up the place and had a disposition that made you want to know her more. How sad that her life was cut short so soon. May God hold her close.

“ Prayers go up for the Wheeler family. For decades one of the highlights of an OLTA convention was spending time with Pat and “wheels”. MUG forever.

She was one of the most beautiful people I knew and I will miss her so very much!! Always so very sweet and kind and wearing her beautiful smile. She will be missed so very much by all her friends and the community. I know the heavens were celebrating when she arrived and Jesus had his arms opened wide to welcome her home. I know she's in a beautiful place but my heart breaks that I won't get to see her again on this earth. Love you so very much my dear Pat and will miss you greatly.

I always enjoyed visiting with Pat at the pool. She had a strong faith and knew that this journey would lead her home! We can be assured she is at peace even though those left behind will miss her so much.
