“ Happy memories of our Friday night out for supper then sitting on the front deck that Larry and Steve built. Your mom and I would always buy a scratch ticket to do while having a drink. RIP Larry .

“ Larry and I have known each other since grade 4. We both failed grade 6 and went home and split a pack of cigarettes between us! He got me my first job at Lightning Fastener for $1.10 an hour. I failed my first driving test in his 57 Chevy and then drove it home alone! So many more great memories. I could go on and on. Please accept my wife Linda and my sincere condolences.
